

|                      |                                                                                                                           |                                                                          |         |                                                                                                                                                 |          |
|----------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|
| AIRFIELD NAME        | November 23                                                                                                               | COLL                                                              |         | EGEL                                                                                                                                     | Scotland |
| CALLSIGN (A/C RADIO) | Coll Radio                                                                                                                |                                                                          |         | 125.005                                                                                                                                         |          |
| CALLSIGN (ES/VATSIM) | EGEL_R_TWR                                                                                                                |                                                                          |         | Elev. 21ft                                                                                                                                      |          |
| LOCATION             | Lat N056.36.07.000                                                                                                        | Long W006.37.04.000                                                      |         | QFE= QNH                                                                                                                                        |          |
| LOCATION GEOGRAPHIC  | 5 NM WSW of Arinagour. Isle of COLL                                                                                       |                                                                          |         |                                                                                                                                                 |          |
| CHART SOURCE         | NATS                                                                                                                      | LOCAL HAZARDS: -Flocks of Greylag Geese around the A/F and Island |         |                                                                                                                                                 |          |
| METAR AIRPORT        | EGPL 113.950                                                                                                              | all year round. Large numbers Airborne near sunrise/sunset.              |         |                                                                                                                                                 |          |
| NAV AIDS             | None; TIR VOR 117.7; MAC VOR 116.00                                                                                       |                                                                          |         | If a single A/C inbound, recommend 'Low pass, Go-Around', not below A800ft, to check for and clear runway of Birds, especially Geese and Gulls. |          |
| RUNWAYS              | Headings                                                                                                                  | Dimension                                                                | Surface |                                                                                                                                                 |          |
|                      | 02 / 20                                                                                                                   | 500M x 18M                                                               | Asphalt |                                                                                                                                                 |          |
| AIRSPACE             | CLASS                                                                                                                     | Transition level 3000ft                                                  |         | Airspace above is Class C FL195, London FIR                                                                                                     |          |
| CIRCUITS             | Left Hand, A1000ft, If single A/C recommend 'Low pass, Go-Around', not below A800, Bird clearance                         |                                                                          |         |                                                                                                                                                 |          |
| REMARKS              | Monitor Tiree Information 122.700, inbound for runway 20, their centre-line passes within 1nm NW.                         |                                                                          |         |                                                                                                                                                 |          |
| HELICOPTERS          | Helicopters as fixed wing, approach/depart not below A1000ft, due Bird traffic. Be aware of downwash when near other A/C. |                                                                          |         |                                                                                                                                                 |          |

ALL PILOTS: PLEASE PUT YOUR A/C CALLSIGN AFTER YOUR NAME.
NOT TO BE USED FOR REAL WORLD OPERATIONS